Star of the week

I waddled as slowly as a penguin.
That springs and turns on the ice and waves.
When all at once I saw a crowd.
A host of furry seals.
Beside the sea.
Beneath the stars.
Rigging and rolling on the ice.

I swam as gracefully as a swan
That paddles beautifully over rivers and seas.
When all at once I saw a crowd
A host of beautiful swans.
Beneath the sea and beside the water.
Swimming and dancing in the breeze.

Class 1 We have ended this half term with some poems to share with you from Class 1. We have been exploring the Lake District and based our poems on William Wordsworth's "I wondered lonely as a cloud".

We used the first verse as inspiration to write poems about our own location as well as places we would like to visit.

I slept as safely as a baby
That dreams of harbours and waves
But all at once I awoke and saw
A host of snow white swans
Beside the shore beneath the trees
Swimming and gliding in the shade.

I walk as slowly as a wallf
that prowls through the fields and the trees.
when all at once I saw a crowd
a host of cheeky sea gulls beside the trees beneath the clouds flying and chirping in the sky.

I padded slowly as an elephant
That stomps around the plains and jungles
when all at once I spotted a crowd
A host of stripy zebra
Beside the river beneath the clouds
Eating and running in the grass.

Class Two have continued their learning about India. They have listened to traditional Indian tales and this week we have created our own versions. We have also completed our artwork exploring rangoli and mandala patterns. In our History learning, we have explored what it means to be a 'civilisation' and looked at the ancient civilisations that existed at the same time as the Indus Valley. After half term, we will continue to find out about the Indus Valley and learn about the people who lived there and the civilisation they established.

Children return on the 28th February. Polite reminder – it is very busy on Trelawney Road and children are walking to and from school so please drive careful and also be respectful of our neighbours.

World Book Day – We will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday 4th March due to Years 3 and 4 swimming. We welcome children to dress up on Friday to celebrate their favorite book character.

We will be changing supplier of our school uniform soon. A link will be posted on our website and Facebook for you to purchase new items. A list of full school uniform requirements is on our website including appropriate footwear.
